TLC Welcomes New Board Member Dr. David Katz

Rockville, Md.— TLC—The Treatment and Learning Centers, a local, non-profit organization that provides educational, therapeutic, and vocational services to children and adults with disabilities welcomes new Board of Trustees member David L. Katz, MD, JD.

Dr. David Katz has been serving as Executive Director of The Advisory Board Company for 13 years, a firm serving a membership of more than 3,000 leading hospitals, health systems, universities and other mission-driven enterprises. Dr. Katz is also the National/International Physician Director for the company and studies and presents findings in multiple areas including clinical practice, technology, quality, economics, physician-hospital alignment strategies, demand forecasting, business intelligence tools and other changes in the healthcare industry. Dr. Katz delivers more than 100 presentations each year through speaking engagements and consulting services.

Dr. Katz maintained a faculty appointment at the Harvard Medical School for twenty years. He received his A.B. from Duke University, his M.D. from Duke University Medical School, and his law degree from the Georgetown University Law Center. Dr. Katz completed his internship, residency, and chief residency at the Harvard Medical School and affiliated hospitals.

When asked what he could contribute to TLC through his board service, Dr. Katz says “I look forward to bringing intellectual capital to an outstanding organization with a vision of increasing awareness of TLC in the community where I live and work.”

Dr. Patricia Ritter, Executive Director of TLC states, “David’s vast knowledge of the healthcare field and TLC services as well as his understanding of the communities we serve will make him a valued Board of Trustees member.”
