TLC – THE TREATMENT AND LEARNING CENTERS NAMES TWO NEW BOARD MEMBERS

Rockville, MD, July 14, 2004 – The Treatment and Learning Centers, a non-profit organization, which helps typically developing children and children and adults with a wide range of disabilities, today announced that two new members would join its board of directors.

Anne Sherman is the President of Access Management, Inc. a business consulting, outsourcing and recruiting firm she established in 1995. Ms. Sherman has more than 30 years of experience specializing in accounting, recruiting, banking, finance, and regulatory compliance. Prior to establishing Access Management, she was the Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer at First Washington Mortgage. She has also served as Vice President and Controller at two savings banks and as a Senior Accountant with Ernst & Young.

She has served on the Boards of: the historic National Woman's Party as Treasurer, the Greater Washington Society of Certified Public Accountants, the Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce as Chair of the Finance and Administration Committee; the Child Care Connection as Chair of the Finance Committee; and the Montgomery County Corporate Volunteer Council. Ms. Sherman is a graduate of American University with a B.S. in business administration and is a licensed Certified Public Accountant. She lives in Rockville, MD with her husband and daughter.

Bill Magruder is a developer for The Magruder Companies, where he is responsible for leasing and managing several commercial and multi-family properties. He has more than 10 years of experience in the commercial real estate industry and was a Real Estate Sales Associate with Wolfe Commercial, Inc., a commercial real estate brokerage firm in San Francisco, prior to joining The Magruder Companies. Mr. Magruder is also a member of the Urban Land Institute. He is a graduate of Southern Methodist University with a B.A. in Psychology. He resides in Bethesda, MD, with his wife and daughter.
